BETWEEN
Prestige Institute of Management, Gwalior & ASEZ

Prestige Institute of Management, Gwalior and ASEZ (hereinafter referred to as "the Parties") recognize that UN-Sustainable Development Goals [SDGs] are for the rights and happiness of all people, not just certain people in a particular region, and that they share responsibility to achieve SDGs for future generations.

The Parties understand the importance of the role of young adults who live both in the present and the future and connect the present generation and the future generation, especially university students who have knowledge and acting power.

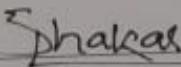

The Parties agree about the need for partnership and international support for university students who will carry out volunteer services around the world as the future leaders with altruism, love for humanity, and the mind of a mother, to achieve the goal for everyone.

The Parties will make collaborative efforts for sustainable development of cities, which are the center of politics, economy, society, and culture.

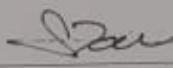

Thus, the Parties agree as follows.

1. The Parties will endeavor to develop and implement various types of volunteer programs and collaborative initiatives based on regional characteristics and sustainable development indicators that cover economy, society, and environments.
2. The Parties will frequently share data and information about the places in need of urgent and practical help, so that university students and residents can take immediate actions and the government can support them more efficiently.
3. The Parties will promote continuous solidarity with government bodies, universities, and communities to spread Mother's Street Project for sustainable city development, and will encourage residents to participate in the project of cleaning 40,000 km, the circumference of the earth, with love of a mother who takes care of her family.
4. The Parties will make efforts to encourage university students, the main agents of volunteer services with the love of a mother, to take the lead in enlightening communities.
5. The Parties will continue discussion and mutual cooperation for the above.
